

The Anatomy Lab of Today and Tomorrow

2019 Instructor Survey Results

VISIBLE BODY®

1. Who are your students?

- Undergraduate 71%
- Medical school and other graduate degrees 24%
- High school 4%

2. What are your biggest teaching challenges?

- Z^Z 77% Student engagement
- 🔬 71% Expensive lab materials
- 👤 55% Limited lab space
- 💰 16% Budget cuts

3. How are enrollments in the anatomy lab course changing?

- 📈 56% Enrollments are steady
- 📈 38% Enrollments are growing

4. Does your institution offer an online anatomy course?

- ✓ 42% Yes
- ✗ 20% No, but there are plans to do so

5. What types of physical dissection models are used in your lab?

Plastic or synthetic models

Prosections (human or animal)

Animal dissections

Human cadaver dissections

6. How is technology changing your lab?

42% of instructors have tablets (such as iPads) in lab room. 17% plan on adding them soon.

39% of instructors use virtual anatomy models.

11% use larger technology devices like Anatomage, Sectra, or virtual reality headsets. 16% plan on adding.